

Information regarding the International Women's Day

It originated within the labor movements of the 20th century, emerging as a struggle for improved working conditions, labor rights, and suffrage. In 1910, Clara Zetkin proposed an international day during a socialist conference, with the inaugural commemoration taking place in 1911. Since that time, it has evolved into a recognized date advocating for gender equality and women's rights.

WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT

WHAT IS IT?

It is the process through which women acquire confidence, knowledge, and resources to make informed decisions and assert control over their personal and professional lives.

IMPORTANCE

Advances gender equality, professional growth, and well-being in all dimensions.